Write 100–120 words.

We are all getting older. We all want our future to be good. There are some elderly people who despite their age don't have kids or family. Unfortunately, things like these happen very often. Elderly people who live by themselves may be presented with a number of problems due to their living situation. They have to take care of themselves. So we should help them. I hope, that we will find a lot of ways to do it.
